Revised 6/6/19

TOWN OF WATERFORD

completed. The permit fee as outlined in section S.10 (d) of the construction site erosion control ordinance are: $150 for the first acre of land or part thereof and $75 per acre for any additional acreage or part thereof are: $150 for the first acre of land or part thereof and $75 per acre for any additional acreage or part thereof are: $150 for the first acre of land or part thereof and $75 per acre for any additional acreage or part thereof are: $150 for the first acre of land one the site is stabilized and the owner requests the removal of erosion control measures. The application/per see for this project does not include professional engineering expenses. In the event the Town Engineer is required the view or inspect this project, the applicant/property owner will be responsible for these fees. Land disturbing activity on a parcel greater than one acre will automatically be referred to the Town Engineer for the view and determination. Engineering expenses incurred for the review/determination will be the responsibility of owner/applicant. By signing this document, the person doing so acknowledges they are aware that the Town of Waterford has a construction site erosion control and land disturbing ordinance (Chap. 15). If the applicant has answered yes to the question above, they are aware that they must obtain a soil disturbance permit and comply with the ordinance and permitting requirements, procedures and fees before starting any work and that they are to implement the control to the satisfaction of the Town Building Inspector and Town Engineer. They also understand that additional engineer ees may be incurred and that they are responsible for reimbursing the Town for those fees. Failure to comply shall before a violation and enforcement will be followed as outlined in S.14 of the Town of Waterford Construction Site erosion Control Ordinance. If the invoice of the Town Engineer, to the Town, for services provided to a property owner a property located in the Town of Waterford, such as, but not limited	Site Address:	Parcel Number:
refiges was circled, a construction site erosion control plan application and checklist are required to be completed. The permit fee as outlined in section S.10 (d) of the construction site erosion control ordinance are: $150 for the first acre of land or part thereof and $75 per acre for any additional acreage or part there serosion control is required in most circumstances. The Town Building Inspector or Town Engineer will be the person determine and will be inspecting erosion control measures prior to soil disturbance, after grading/filling is completed and once the site is stabilized and the owner requests the removal of erosion control measures. The application/per ee for this project does not include professional engineering expenses. In the event the Town Engineer is required the eview or inspect this project, the applicant/property owner will be responsible for these fees. And disturbing activity on a parcel greater than one acre will automatically be referred to the Town Engineer for the review and determination. Engineering expenses incurred for the review/determination will be the responsibility of powner/applicant. By signing this document, the person doing so acknowledges they are aware that the Town of Waterford has a construction site erosion control and land disturbing ordinance (Chap. 15). If the applicant has answered yes to the question above, they are aware that they must obtain a soil disturbance permit and comply with the ordinance and permitting requirements, procedures and fees before starting any work and that they are to implement the control of the astisfaction of the Town Building Inspector and Town Engineer. They also understand that additional engineer ees may be incurred and that they are responsible for reimbursing the Town for those fees. Failure to comply shall leademed a violation and enforcement will be followed as outlined in S.14 of the Town of Waterford Construction Site erosion Control Ordinance. If the invoice of the Town Engineer, to the Town of Waterford, such as, bu		·
		YES or NO
determine and will be inspecting erosion control measures prior to soil disturbance, after grading/filling is completed and once the site is stabilized and the owner requests the removal of erosion control measures. The application/per see for this project does not include professional engineering expenses. In the event the Town Engineer is required to eview or inspect this project, the applicant/property owner will be responsible for these fees. And disturbing activity on a parcel greater than one acre will automatically be referred to the Town Engineer for the eview and determination. Engineering expenses incurred for the review/determination will be the responsibility of owner/applicant. By signing this document, the person doing so acknowledges they are aware that the Town of Waterford has a construction site erosion control and land disturbing ordinance (Chap. 15). If the applicant has answered yes to the question above, they are aware that they must obtain a soil disturbance permit and comply with the ordinance and permitting requirements, procedures and fees before starting any work and that they are to implement the control of the satisfaction of the Town Building Inspector and Town Engineer. They also understand that additional engineer sees may be incurred and that they are responsible for reimbursing the Town for those fees. Failure to comply shall determed a violation and enforcement will be followed as outlined in S.14 of the Town of Waterford Construction Site for site of the Town of Waterford, such as, but not limited to, inspection for improper drainage of store water, compliance inspections or creating a drainage plan, is not paid within 30 days of the billing via email or USPS, andersigned property owner gives permission to the Town to place the same billing amount, plus a $75 service charges a special charge on the next applicable real estate tax bill, said property owner waiving all notices or applicable procedures. PROPERTY OWNER MUST SIGN THIS FORM!	completed. The permit fee as outlin	ed in section S.10 (d) of the construction site erosion control ordinance review and determination. Engineering expenses incurred for the review/determination will be the responsibility of owner/applicant. By signing this document, the person doing so acknowledges they are aware that the Town of Waterford has a construction site erosion control and land disturbing ordinance (Chap. 15). If the applicant has answered yes to the question above, they are aware that they must obtain a soil disturbance permit and comply with the ordinance and permitting requirements, procedures and fees before starting any work and that they are to implement the control proportion of the Town Building Inspector and Town Engineer. They also understand that additional engineer was be incurred and that they are responsible for reimbursing the Town for those fees. Failure to comply shall be deemed a violation and enforcement will be followed as outlined in S.14 of the Town of Waterford Construction Site crosion Control Ordinance. If the invoice of the Town Engineer, to the Town, for services provided to a property own or a property located in the Town of Waterford, such as, but not limited to, inspection for improper drainage of stor water, compliance inspections or creating a drainage plan, is not paid within 30 days of the billing via email or USPS, andersigned property owner gives permission to the Town to place the same billing amount, plus a $75 service charges a special charge on the next applicable real estate tax bill, said property owner waiving all notices or applicable procedures. PROPERTY OWNER MUST SIGN THIS FORM!	determine and will be inspecting erosion once the site is stabilized and the oree for this project does not include pro	n control measures prior to soil disturbance, after grading/filling is completed wner requests the removal of erosion control measures. The application/perr fessional engineering expenses. In the event the Town Engineer is required to construction site erosion control and land disturbing ordinance (Chap. 15). If the applicant has answered yes to the question above, they are aware that they must obtain a soil disturbance permit and comply with the ordinance and permitting requirements, procedures and fees before starting any work and that they are to implement the control property of the satisfaction of the Town Building Inspector and Town Engineer. They also understand that additional engineer ees may be incurred and that they are responsible for reimbursing the Town for those fees. Failure to comply shall be deemed a violation and enforcement will be followed as outlined in S.14 of the Town of Waterford Construction Site erosion Control Ordinance. If the invoice of the Town Engineer, to the Town, for services provided to a property own or a property located in the Town of Waterford, such as, but not limited to, inspection for improper drainage of stor water, compliance inspections or creating a drainage plan, is not paid within 30 days of the billing via email or USPS, andersigned property owner gives permission to the Town to place the same billing amount, plus a $75 service charges a special charge on the next applicable real estate tax bill, said property owner waiving all notices or applicable procedures. PROPERTY OWNER MUST SIGN THIS FORM!	eview and determination. Engineering	,
Owner of Property:	construction site erosion control and larguestion above, they are aware that the permitting requirements, procedures are of the satisfaction of the Town Building lees may be incurred and that they are deemed a violation and enforcement we crosion Control Ordinance. If the invoice for a property located in the Town of We water, compliance inspections or creation and enforcement water, compliance inspections or creation and enforcement.	In disturbing ordinance (Chap. 15). If the applicant has answered yes to the my must obtain a soil disturbance permit and comply with the ordinance and ad fees before starting any work and that they are to implement the control planspector and Town Engineer. They also understand that additional engineer responsible for reimbursing the Town for those fees. Failure to comply shall be followed as outlined in S.14 of the Town of Waterford Construction Site e of the Town Engineer, to the Town, for services provided to a property own aterford, such as, but not limited to, inspection for improper drainage of storing a drainage plan, is not paid within 30 days of the billing via email or USPS, this sistent to the Town to place the same billing amount, plus a $75 service charge e real estate tax bill, said property owner waiving all notices or applicable atty OWNER MUST SIGN THIS FORM!
Printed Name	Owner of Property:	Printed Name
Address:	Address:

 Send Complete

TOWN OF WATERFORD CONSTRUCTION SITE EROSION CONTROL PERMIT APPLICATION

Application to:

Town of Waterford
Building Inspector
415 N. Milwaukee St.
Waterford, Wi 53185

Official Use Only

Date Received:

Fee Received:

Reviewer:

Instructions: Please type or print legibly.	Read all instructions before completing application.
Project Start Date:	Project End Date:
Site Address and Parcel Number(s):
Applicant/Entity Receiving Permit:
Name of Applicant:
Contractor Name:
Contractor Address:
Contractor Phone No. and Email Address:
Property Owner:
Owner Name(s):
Owner Address:
Owner Phone No. and Email Address:
Engineer (If Applicable):
Name of Firm:	_
Firm Address:
Firm Phone No. and Email Address:

You will receive a green placard to serve as your permit.

Work is NOT to commence until you obtain this placard from the Building Inspector!

ь				-1	_	10	11	$\overline{}$
К	ev	IS	е	a	6/	6	/ Τ	9

Permit No:

TOWN OF WATERFORD

CONSTRUCTION SITE EROSION CONTROL PLAN APPLICATION CHECKLIST

(SITES LESS THAN ONE ACRE)

Date:
Project Location:

Please check the appropriate box: I=Included; N/A=Non-Applicable (If N/A is checked, an explanation must be entered)

PLAN REQUIREMENT	ı	N/A	EXPLANATION//LOCATION IN PLAN
A. Submittal Requirements	•
Permit Application Form
B. Site Drawing/Survey or Plat of the Proposed Project
1. North Arrow
Delineation of Proposed Land Disturbance Area
Existing/Proposed Site Information
a. Buildings/Structures, roads, access drives
b. Property lines
c. Drainage Ways
d. Water bodies/Waterways
e. Trees
f. Culverts
g. Other structures within 50 feet of prop. disturbance
h. Direction/Grade of slopes before/after disturbance
i. Contour lines at 2 foot intervals
j. Drainage flow lines, location of water retention areas/rain gardens
k. Location of stockpiles of dirt with dimensions, how they are maintained, how long they will be allowed to exist
F. Narrative	l .	l
Description of site and nature of construction activity
Construction start and end dates
Description and location of all temporary erosion control practices

In addition to the above, the applicant must provide, prior to the issuance of any permit, a survey or plat map showing existing and proposed contours(Racine County has GIS web-maps available online for the entire township); drainage flow lines; location of erosion control measures utilized or tobe-utilized; location of soil stockpiles either currently existing or to be erected and dimensions of the same.